

A photograph of a sandy beach with several footprints scattered across the surface. The footprints are of varying sizes and orientations, suggesting a path or a group of people walking. The sand is a light tan color, and the lighting is soft, creating gentle shadows.

Things that fit together well.

They complement each other.

Without [active] faith [in God] we can not pray!

Without prayer, we can not have faith!

You can' have one without the other!

Anybody can have faith.

Anybody can pray.

We can't be followers of Jesus Christ unless we are praying frequently, and trusting in God – in faith – that He has plans for us.

Romans 5:1-5 (ESV)

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.
